CONCISE EXPLANATION

Belousov Yu.B., Moiseev VS, Lepakhin VK, Clinical pharmacology and pharmacotherapy. Textbook for physicians. Universum Publishing, Moscow, 1997.

This textbook contains data about Russian and also about foreign drugs, about their usage in clinical practice and mostly adopted pharmacotherapeutical approaches during various diseases and pathological conditions. Pharmacokinetics and pharmacodynamics of most common medical substances, their indications, dosage and adverse reactions were described in detail.

Textbook would be useful for wide range of medical professionals, especially for medical high schools professors, for pharmacists, for practitioners and also for medical students.

In chapter 14 of this book authors demonstrates well-known and commonly accepted methods of treatment of allergic diseases including bronchial asthma.
